We make the following commitments voluntarily through our Modern Slavery and Illegal Workers Policy. They apply across our business and supply chain.

Our commitments

- We do not and will not use forced, bonded, child, slave or involuntary labour anywhere in our business or supply chain.
- We do not and will not take part in human trafficking or exploitation of any kind.
- Right to work checks are completed for everyone before they start. All personnel work on lawful terms, are free to leave on reasonable notice and are paid at or above the National Living Wage.

Our supply chain

Our supply chain consists mainly of UK-based subcontract trade partners and small specialist subcontractors. They are engaged on written terms and paid within 30 days of receiving a valid invoice.

We will co-operate fully with any due diligence request from a client or contracting authority.

Responsibility and review

The directors oversee these commitments alongside our recruitment and subcontractor arrangements. This policy is reviewed annually and earlier if our activities or relevant requirements change.
